PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Jenni Chastain, President

The thing I've always enjoyed about my association with LWHS Alumni Foundation is re-connecting with past friends and acquaintances, even former students.

I graduated from Lake Worth High School in 1966 and returned to teach home economics there from 1971-1980. Mrs. Elizabeth Neal, my Spanish teacher for four years, was instrumental in my being hired there. I was in the front office inquiring about a vacancy in the home ec. department, and Mrs. Neal came into the office. She told Principal Joe Birch, "Jenni Ford is a model citizen and would be a fine addition to our faculty." I got the job!

Current football games are a great way of seeing people you haven't seen in a long time, and you never know who it will be. I was walking out after a recent football game and I heard, "Mrs. Chastain?" It was a former student (from when I taught at John I. Leonard High School) who is now teaching at Lake Worth High. Her name was Jequivia Kelly and she is now married and has a beautiful young son.

Then, at our barbeque in September, I had the opportunity to speak to lots of people as I collected their meal tickets. I was eyeing a young woman who seemed familiar to me. She had been a student in one of my home economics classes at Lake Worth High and graduated in 1975.

A few of us from the alumni foundation go to many reunions selling alumni "treasures". I always find some connection with people there. Many times it is either a sister or brother of someone from my class of 1966.

The alumni have a wonderful liaison at the school...Pete DiDonato, Assistant Principal. (He was the main announcer at our barbeque.) He is working on a special alumni night on October 24 at the final home football game. This should bring out lots more alums and even some "hall of famers!"

Be careful if you ever meet the principal, Dr. George Lockhart. He might ask you to sing the fight song, which I don't think I know. I remember singing the Alma Mater in glee club, but the fight song??? Could it be my age?

The LWHS campus looks beautifully maintained. The buildings are painted a rich cream color, and all the nooks and crannies of the old architecture are painted maroon. It is a nice contrast. It is truly "up on the hill", and you will be huffing and puffing when you make it to the top of the campus. From the parking lot, you will walk up "Jeter Barker Boulevard" in front of the North and South buildings. The South building is now called, "David Cantley Hall." The next building is the cafeteria named, "Jill Hamblin Hall" in remembrance of our former librarian from the 1970's and 80's. Next is the power plant for the City of Lake Worth and water tower. (Does that bring back any memories to our adventurous alumni?) Directly across from the cafeteria is the "Bill Harvey Football Stadium" with the "Mac McKinnon Football Field". The track surrounding the football field is unnamed. Maybe YOU want your name attached to it? As you head north you pass classroom buildings, the media center, and the "Tommy Hansen Auditorium" which houses plays, concerts, award ceremonies, and graduations. Finally, you come to the "Dorsey Swim Complex", which is in a familiar location. The "R.Kent Smith Gymnasium" completes the circle and faces the pool from the west side of the parking lot. As you pass the school from I-95, it is clearly identified in big, maroon letters as Lake Worth High School.

By the way, just in case you can no longer climb the water tower and sign your name, you can purchase commemorative bricks for yourself, family or friends. These are placed in sidewalks at different locations around the school, and are much easier to read.

Here we are in 2014. In 2022, Lake Worth High School will celebrate 100 years as a continuous educational facility in the same location with the same name. What a significant achievement that will be! Still another reason to be proud to be a Lake Worth Trojan!

Jenni Chastain

My Husband...

They don't come any better than my husband, Charlie Brooks. At least, that's what I think. But, then again, don't we all feel that way about our spouse or shouldn't we.

I can honestly say that I truly don't know anyone that didn't like him. If he was your friend, there wasn't anything he wouldn't do for you at any time, night or day. As far as I'm concerned, he was the most wonderful husband, father, son, brother, uncle, cousin, brother-in-law and friend. Charles' entire life was about caring for the needs of others – especially his family including his now 102 year old mother that he adored.

He always loved family and friends visiting or staying with us. So much so that in Black Mountain we usually kept a revolving door with so many comings and goings. I use to laugh and say "can't we have just a couple of days alone." He just truly enjoyed being around people he cared about. Not being one to sit idle, he always had some sort of project going on. So, if you happened to be around in the midst of one, you were more likely than not included in getting it done.

When the kids were growing up and we were at the lake, there was no 'sleeping in' allowed as we were all to be out on the water having fun or sometimes there just might be a little bit of work. Basically, we'd be out until practically dark, then maybe wine and cheese on the deck. After that, I could run in and whip up a little dinner. Charles thought that was just heaven as our lake home was his absolute most favorite place on earth to be.

Of utmost importance to him were his lifelong friends from Lake Worth and maintaining those relationships through the years. The mini reunions were an integral part in that endeavor and as I'm sure you all know meant so very much to him.

In case there are those who were not aware of Charles' passing and have an interest, you may go to www.baldwinfairchild.com to view his obituary, photos, etc.

Charles will live on in the hearts of all who loved him forever. Recently, someone told me that only one thing in your life changes when you lose your spouse, and that is, of course, 'everything'!

Cindy Brooks

Fond Memories of Charlie

I met Charles Brooks at L.W.H. However, him being a senior and I a sophomore, I knew his younger brother Bob who was in my class. Charlie was very popular, busy with sports and school activities, so, everybody knew him.

Fast forward about 10 years. Charlie had been in the service and "unfortunately, graduated a Gator." I did 3 years in the army and was "lucky to graduate a Seminole." The reason I mention this is, we had many wagers and friendly arguments over the years about these teams. Charlie loved the Gators!!!!

Charlie was in the mortgage business in Merritt Island, Fl. and my company transferred me to the cape area. We met again and became good friends at this time and enjoyed the next few years until my company transferred me. We had no contact for the next 35 years. I went to a L.W.H. reunion in 1998 at Charlie's Cocoa Beach Econo Lodge. After this, we kept in contact often and became very good friends. During the next 15 years I got to know the real Charlie Brooks. He was very private about all the people and charities he helped. I could write a few pages about all that he did for others that most people do not know about but, I am supposed to keep this short.

I have to write this though. Charlie loved old cars and had a 1930 Model A Roadster. He liked my collection of cars and interest in chasing cars. Over the next 10 years we traveled many miles and states pulling a car trailer behind us. One day he called and wanted me to call a man in Maryland about a car. He called me back the next morning and said "lets go to Maryland for a little vacation." We spent a lot of time at car auctions and of course at the yearly L.W.H. reunion.

These memories of the time I spent with "My Friend Charlie" are the best and I will always cherish them.

Dick Goodell

A True Gentleman

Charlie was a true gentleman, a loyal and loving husband, a generous father, a very successful businessman, a good Gator (only knew a few--ha) and I'm proud to say-my friend. As a better man-He would say: "I ALWAYS root for FSU when you're not playing the Gators." My reply: "Charlie, I always TRY to root for the Gators".

We were not close in high school but our families became close in our later years. Political conservatives, perhaps. We took several cruises together, golfed, visited their Black Mountain home. the Longwood home, had fun times at Lake Brooklyn in Keystone Heights where we both had a cabin, and of course, our annual High School reunions, which were the dedicated work of Charlie and Cindy for the benefit of all LWHs grads.

I believe all who knew Charlie recognized his generosity, his success in life as a person and his unending contributions to our reunions, LWHs Dollars For Scholars, etc.

We who knew him well will miss the unscheduled phone conversations, fun times and MOST OF ALL-CHARLIE.

In Memory of Charles Brooks...

Charlie loved Lake Worth Jr./Sr. High School and his lifelong classmates and friends. From the time he stepped onto the campus on the hill, he was a committed Trojan...not only in the sports arena, but also in the fabric of the whole school. It wouldn't be a surprise if he knew the names of everyone from 7th to 12th grade – throughout his high school days.

He played J.V. football and advanced to the position of Quarterback in high school where he excelled. He was also on the swim team, but whatever activity he was participating in, you could be assured that he was giving 100% to the endeavor. He loved...yes, loved...his teachers and coaches and maintained contact with many of them for decades. The lessons learned at LWHs were the foundation for leadership that prepared him well for his future successes and life itself.

The slogan "Pay it Forward" wasn't around in the '50's era, but it was integral to Charlie's DNA since childhood. It was second nature for him to be of help to someone in need and to pitch- in on various activities. An example of his giving nature and thinking of others is his establishment of the Coach Bob Fulton Memorial Fund to assist current day students. Some Alumni may never have met Charlie, but, undoubtedly, they know of the Reunions in Kissimmee that he and his gracious wife, Cindy, have provided for many years.

Some might wonder, "Why do LWHs alumni celebrate their Class Reunions at Comfort Suites in Kissimmee?" The basis for this relates back many years to Charlie's Class of 1952, which held their reunions every five years. Because they had so much fun and enjoyed being together, the idea generated of having the reunions more frequently. Conversation began and the group thought meeting every year would be super if something could be worked out.

At that time, Charlie and Cindy owned and operated a motel in Cocoa Beach. They came up with a suggestion that the Class of '52 reunions could be held yearly at their facility at a cost that covered their overhead. Needless to say, $10.00 per night was an over-the-top accommodation. The group enjoyed many years of fun-filled weekends there. It's interesting to note that when Charlie and Cindy sold the Cocoa Beach motel that a provision in the sales contract required that the new owners continue to honor their request of having the reunions there at reduced cost.

Good fortune befell LWHs when Charlie and Cindy built the Comfort Suites in Kissimmee because they held fast to their previous generosity. Because the facilities were larger, and because Alums from other classes were interested in attending, the invitation was extended.

Because Charlie Brooks, Class of 1952, remembered and appreciated his roots at LWHs, hundreds have experienced fellowship, joy, laughter and fond memories. The weekends after Mother's Day for the past number of years have truly been "Celebration in Kissimmee" with consummate hosts, Cindy and Charlie Brooks.

Self Made Man

Charlie was a self-made man. He rose from very humble beginnings in Lake Worth to a college educated very successful business man. His background included banking and the hospitality industry. I once asked him how many motels he owned and he said "I don't know Dave, it is either twelve or thirteen." He eventually sold all his motels and built The Comfort Suites Hotel in Kissimmee. That hotel was honored by being chosen as the top Comfort Suites Hotel in The United States.

Charlie and Cindy are legendary for their generosity in holding the annual "Kissimmee Reunion" for Lake Worth High grads during the first weekend after Mother's Day each year. Charlie loved his school and its alums. He once told me that he read "The Alumni News" from cover to cover. They don't come any better than Charlie Brooks. He was tops in every category, husband, father, friend, business man and philanthropist. He will be missed by many.

by Dave Cantley, DFS President

Jeanne Butcher class 52 classmate of Charlie's

"THE FIRST WEEKEND AFTER MOTHER'S DAY" mini-reunions started at the Econo Lodge in Cocoa, Fl and continued on at Comfort Suites East in Kissimmee for 23 years. Charlie and Cindy made it all possible due to their love and generosity for LWHs former classmates. When we first organized the class of 52 mini-reunions in Cocoa at the Econo Lodge, we were invited on tours of Kennedy Space Center with 2 buses (Sign read "Center Director Guests") by our former LWHs Biology teacher, George English. Who could ever imagine going through the gates of the Launch Pad and walking on the very grounds where a Space Shuttle was getting ready to launch or on another trip when it had just launched? Also a tour of the VAB to see the new shuttle, Atlantis, being readied for space travel? These tours were only for U.S. and foreign "dignitaries". NASA employees shook their heads in amazement when we told them we were a Lake Worth High School Class Reunion!

When we moved our mini-reunions to Comfort Suites East, Kissimmee, we included all alumni of LWHs. At our last mini-reunion in May, Charlie requested us to continue having fun "the first weekend after Mother's Day". We will always remember Charlie as a loyal TROJAN.

Thomas Family Dances Through The Years

In the early 1920s, a young woman named Grace Arbogast (Thomas) visited relatives in the South Florida area during a spring vacation. Fortunately for the local dance community, she liked the area and decided to stay. With this decision, Grace began a family tradition that lasted 84 years.

Once settled in Lake Worth, Grace began teaching dance in her home in the mid 1920s, and held her first recital in the spring of 1926. She was named the first “Miss Lake Worth” in 1926. Grace married Englishman Frederick J. Thomas and they had son, Fred Thomas, in 1928. Through the years, Grace had numerous studio locations in the area, including Lake Worth, Delray Beach and West Palm Beach. The studio’s final location at 924 N. Dixie Highway in Lake Worth was built in the 1950s by Grace’s son Fred.

Most of Grace’s dance recitals were held at the Lake Worth High School auditorium, always to a full house. Grace’s students performed throughout the local community for many cultural and charitable events, and she led a USO dance troupe of her students on a nationwide tour during the summer of 1944 through an invitation by Eleanor Roosevelt.

Grace, or “Teacher” as she was affectionately called, specialized in control acrobatics work and developed outstanding adagio teams, which received numerous accolades and awards state-wide.

Grace’s student, Virginia Sullivan, danced and taught at the studio for many years. Virginia married Grace’s son, Fred, in 1948, both of whom attended and graduated from Lake Worth High School. The couple had three children, Teri (Brent) Szember, Todd (Patti McKenzie) Thomas, and Tami (Rick) Valentine, all of whom also graduated from Lake Worth Casino when it was first opened, and, interestingly, provided the entertainment for the most recent Casino Ballroom re-opening in 2013.

When Virginia decided to “semi-retire” in

Grace Thomas’ Adagio Team

Lake Worth High School. The entire family participated in the dance studio activities and productions throughout their lives.

Virginia continued working at the studio, which eventually became the Virginia S. Thomas Studio of Dancing in 1974. Virginia continued to develop dancers in all disciplines and provided entertainment and performances throughout the county. She taught on state and national faculties of Dance Masters of America and Florida Dance Masters, and judged for state and national competitions. As a dance student, Virginia performed at the 1986, daughters Teri & Tami formed Thomas Dance Studio, becoming third generation owners of the school. Teri & Tami founded the non- profit ENCORE! Dance Company in 1990, and the company was recognized with many awards and honors throughout the State of Florida for outstanding performance, technique and choreography. Through the years, individual students have received numerous scholarship awards and solo titles, including Miss and Mr. Dance of Florida, amongst others. Scores of students went on to become professional dancers, accredited teachers, and studio owners, many of whom are teaching today.

Grace, Virginia, Teri and Tami were active in Dance Masters of America and Florida Dance Masters, serving on the Board of Directors and holding numerous offices in the organizations.

The studio business was purchased by student Amy Gentile, in 2010, who was allowed to continue the Thomas Dance Studio name under her ownership. She sold her business in 2014 to professionals Douglas Gawriljuk and Marife Gimenez, who now operate the “School of Ballet Arts” at the former Thomas Dance Studio location in Lake Worth.

The Thomas family’s long standing commitment to the Lake Worth community impacted thousands of lives in the Palm Beach County community. Virginia continues to serve the community as a Board Member of the Lake Worth High School Alumni foundation.

THANK YOU, LWHS, FOR MY AWESOME CAREER!

By Don Vaughan (Class of '76)

As far back as I can remember, I wanted to be a writer. I'm happy to report that I have achieved that goal, and I have Lake Worth High School to thank for it. Here's why.

During my junior year, I failed algebra. (Not my proudest moment, but it happened.) I didn't need the math credit, so I transferred to another class called Mass Media, which was essentially a writing class. That, along with my stint on the Trojan Times – and some mentoring by Trojan Times advisor Diane Berryman – made me realize that journalism was the career for me.

While attending what is now Palm Beach State College, I landed a job on the Lake Worth Herald, where I honed my craft for six years. From there I moved on to a six-year stint with a magazine called Your Health and Medical Bulletin, which led to a gig writing for a mid-list tabloid newspaper called The National Examiner. I enjoyed writing for the Examiner until a change in editors turned my dream job into a nightmare. With my wife's encouragement, I left that job to freelance full-time. And I've never looked back.

I've worked as a full-time freelance writer since 1991, and have loved every minute of it. I get to interview cool people, do amazing things, and visit unique places – and get paid for the privilege of writing about them. To date, I have published nearly 1,900 articles in magazines and newspapers in the United States and abroad, and I have written, co-written, ghosted or contributed to more than 35 books on topics ranging from World War II to popular American festivals.

People often ask me about my favorite aspect of freelance writing. That's easy: the interview. I have conducted hundreds of interviews over the years with people both ordinary and famous. I once made NASA Administrator and former astronaut Charles Bolden cry by asking him about his family. And then there was the time I got into a fight over the phone with actress Ann Sothorn. The moral of that story? Never challenge a feisty 70-year-old actress about her age. It's a fight you won't win.

I have had the opportunity to talk with a lot of celebrities over the years, including R. Lee Ermey (Full Metal Jacket), Tim Matheson (Animal House), Bill Mumy (Lost in Space) and William Schallert (The Patty Duke Show). All were extremely kind, considerate and accommodating.

It's the war heroes I admire most, though. For a Military Officer Magazine article pegged on the 70th anniversary of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, I talked with three Pearl Harbor survivors, each of whom had a unique perspective about what they endured that day. And not too long ago, I profiled 96-year-old Elinor Otto, who was one of the original Rosie the Riveters – and who still works as a riveter for Boeing today.

Writing has also led to numerous other opportunities for me. I currently teach a class on freelance writing through the continuing education program at Wake Technical Community College in Raleigh, N.C., and several years ago I founded Triangle Area Freelancers, one of the largest organizations in North Carolina devoted to freelance writing. Each spring, TAF hosts a one-day writing conference that draws attendees from around the country. It's my baby, and I couldn't be prouder.

Not everyone lands their dream job, so I consider myself one of the lucky ones. And to think that I owe it all to the fact that I'm lousy at math.

Helen Jones Class of '79 - Gospel Singer

Lake Worth High School's class of 1979 has a special success story, Helen Miller, known as Helen Jones in high school, is a professional Gospel Singer. Helen was born in Boynton Beach. She grew up with 4 brothers and attended church with her grandmother at Deliverance Evangelistic Temple. She performed her first solo at the tender age of 4, singing "Yes Jesus Loves Me" and she told me they loved the way I sang it, she said "I confused the words He is Weak but I am Strong" so everyone in the church got a real good chuckle". She LOVED singing since she was a small girl and would practice for hours in front of her mirror using a hairbrush or a bottle of Ban Roll-on deodorant as her microphone. To get the full effect she said "Sometimes I would go into the bathroom and put water all over my face so it looked like I was singing so hard I was perspiring", well I got a chuckle over that!

She regularly sang at church all her life, I asked where she got her talent and she said as a young girl they would travel to Georgia for family reunions (her parents were from Georgia) her father's family would get together and perform as an acapella group using their voices as instruments and they were really good. She was in chorus in Jr. High but never was able to continue with it into high school. At 16 she was unable to continue attending school during the day so she attended night school and received a diploma in December 1979. She married at a young age and had 3 children by age 21. She later attended South-Tech Vocational School for Bookkeeping and Accounting and worked for Palm Beach County in the accounting department.

After her husband left the military they were divorced and ten years later she married Vernon Miller, who also had 3 children. I asked if they had any children together, she told me no "6 were enough".... and this is where her life took a turn. Both she and her husband became ministers and taught at Bible Teachers International Ministries in Fort Lauderdale starting in 1994, where she still remains a member. After serving there as Pastors for over 10 years, her husband became a bishop and they traveled around Florida to oversee the other churches, in their conference. This allowed her to focus on her singing career. In 2005 she started working on a CD and then in 2009 the CD was released and that has put her on the map. During this time she was introduced to Shaun Dash, whom she referred to as a son and a great inspiration, a young man that is a producer and musician and was able to help her further her career. He has been and still is very instrumental in her music career. Her music is heard on the radio all over the nation; locally you can hear her on Ft Pierce station WJFP 107.1 FM in West Palm Beach. She has been interviewed and performed on Television. She has had no formal training, only a few voice lessons.

The most important point she asked me to express was, "I love God and I love ministry, I was born for this purpose, and I am happy I found God's purpose for me. God is not obligated to bless you while you follow your own dream, but if it comes from Him, the blessings will come! I pushed past my fears and insecurities and stepped out in FAITH and TRUSTED GOD to supply me with whatever I needed, because this is God's purpose for me and I give God all the glory, IT'S ALL FOR HIM!"

Helen can be found at www.helenmiller.music.com

She presently has 2 CDs out, the newest release entitled "Worth It All" and previously released "Time Is Winding Up" you can hear small snippets from them both on the Rhapsody web site: Home>Music>Christian/Gospel (Top Tracks)

Memories of LWHS

As I look back some forty plus years, I really appreciate all the hard work of the teachers, staff, and coaches who dedicated their time and talent toward our education. Many of us have become experts in our field (medical, law, finance, education, etc.). I am proud to say that I'm an alum of LWHS. As a current educator (instructor at Mayland Community College--Spruce Pine, NC) and past banker, I know the importance of a good education. The schools in Lake Worth provided that for me. One will always be blessed by giving back to your community.

I enjoyed the smallness of LWHS 1971-1973 (only 10-12 grade vs. 9-12 grade of today).

I enjoyed being on the swim team for 3 years and still remember many of those races, but don't miss the cold water practices (before the pool was heated!

I also enjoyed the Friday night parties, especially those on Jog Road!

I also enjoy the updates on what is happening with LW Alum from good news to sad news.

Go Trojans,

Steve Botney, Class of '73

Holding a heart sealed his career choice Lake Worth High School Valedictorian going to Boston College

Michelle Kaplan

taken from the Palm Beach Post

Marc Moise has always been one to follow his heart.

During his freshmen year at John I Leonard he became interested in the medical field, so sophomore year he moved to Lake Worth High School for its Medical Science Academy.

There he excelled in his studies, and now holds bragging rights, as this year's Valedictorian.

With a 3.96 GPA and an HPA of 4.97 Moise will attend Boston College with the goal of becoming a cardiac surgeon.

Moise said he found what he was looking for when it was placed in the palms of his hands.

"I actually held in my hands an actual human heart," he said.

"At first I was grossed out completely. I thought that I was going to throw up, and then I realized I knew all the parts of the heart. I held it in my hands and saw all the valves. I could see how it functioned.. holding a real human heart changed my perspective."

Moise who came to the United States from Haiti when he was 3 years old decided he wanted to change the perception of Haitians at Lake Worth High School.

Moise felt the now defunct Top Six Gang, which was made up of Haitian kids, had left behind lingering stereotypes he wanted to dispel so he started the Haitian Honor Society to promote a true image of Haitian culture.

The club has 50 members and is open to any student to join.

"I want the people to think of the Haitian culture, not the "Top Six" said Moise. "We gave culture presentations, had a few guest speakers. We held banquets and served Haitian food to experience the cuisine Haiti has to offer"

Along with founding the club this year, Moise was president of the National Honor Society and worked part time at the front desk for 24 Hour Fitness in Greenacres.

He just became a certified personal trainer in addition to his gig at the 24 Hour Fitness. Moise will keep busy this summer with a part time job at Barton Elementary School as an academic tutor and mentor.

The program is near and dear to his heart because he attended it when he was a kid.

"I love having the opportunity to positively impact a child's life just as my old mentors from this program did years ago. I just started so most of the children are not yet used to me but some told me I'm a great teacher so far," he said.

Moise manages it all, although one would think it was a balancing act, he says it's more about what makes you happy.

"It was just doing what I like to do," he says.

"The school part I like to do it, working at 24 Hour Fitness, I liked to do it. I like taking on leadership roles.

Just finding happiness and contentment in what I do, that's where I find my balance."

We would like for anyone who would like to share a story, pictures, memories to please send them to hogfish123@aol.com for the November newsletter which goes out on May 13th 2014. Please send copies of photos as they will not be returned.

Celebrating 25 Years with Class of '89

By Shellie Pike

On June 28th 2014 we held a dinner party event at Couco Pazzo Italian Bistro in downtown Lake Worth. We celebrated with a buffet dinner, dancing, and a lot of catching up with classmates. We had a huge turnout and a great time was had by all.

On June 29th we held a family picnic at John Prince Park at the Mounds Circle Pavilion in Lake Worth. We had food from Pollo Tropical, a DJ, and a bounce house for the kids along with kid activities. We had a very special guest join us, the most handsome and best principal ever, David

Cantley. We're all very happy that he took the time to stop by it meant a lot to us for him to join our reunion celebration. Shortly after Mr. Cantley arrived, a storm rolled in quick so we took some group pictures before we got under cover in the pavilion. Mr. Cantley has a new nic-name now, "Lightning Cantley", as one of our group pictures taken by Scott Galloway had a lightning bolt in the background that looks like it struck Mr. Cantley in the head. The lightning was real bad the winds blew the bounce house up in the air, over the pavilion and some cars. Unfortunately the storm was a reunion crasher but made unforgettable memories for sure.

It took teamwork from the following to make this reunion a success: Holly Owens Galloway, Suzanne Howell, Grady Lisk, Christine Boone Wagner, Jeanne Martin, and me. We have decided instead of planning a reunion every five years to start planning a gathering once a year. We look forward to Lightning Cantley joining us next year!

Elzie Phanord '2004

I am a 2004 Lake Worth High School Alumni.

During the four years attending the High school I participated in the Marching Band, Chorus, and Step Team.

I graduated with my diploma. I enrolled in PBCC (which is not PBSC) for my AA. Then I transferred and earned my BS and MS at Palm Beach Atlantic University.

I am currently working as a School Counselor at Lake Worth High School. I am an advocate for all students. If I could do it, so can you. Do not put a limit what what a student can do for their education.

ALUMNI FOUNDATION MISSION STATEMENT

"Unite and assist alumni and friends of Lake Worth High School to provide grants and scholarships for the general benefit of the school and its students."

Another Alumni Fundraiser Supports Trojan Students

Karen Manner Mostler (Class of 1962) sits with her Mom, Margaret King Manner. Mrs. Manner is the oldest Alumni from Lake Worth High School. "I love the school and the students, every single one of them, are so special to me and to the rest of the Alumni."

Lake Worth's loyal Alumni continue to show-up for events that raise money for scholarships. On a sunny Sunday afternoon with not a hint of rain, Trojan Alumni held their Annual Bar-B-Que. Money raised goes to worthy Trojan students to help pay for college. Each spring the Alumni hold their "Dollars for Scholars" Scholarship Awards in the Auditorium. Last spring, the Alumni distributed over $75,000 to help fulfill the college dreams of Trojan students.

"The students of Lake Worth don't know how lucky they are to have such a loyal fan base from their Alumni," says Assistant Principal Peter DiDonato. "We can only hope that these young Trojan graduates come back and pay it forward."

Class of 58 and some other Classes of the 50's together for Dinner

Carrying on in the role of President of the class of 58, Chris Hansen helped his class kick-off their count-down to the 60th reunion. Members of the class got together on Friday, October 24th at the home of Chris and Carol Hansen with a "tail-gate" party before the Trojan's home game. With four years to go, the class will hold an event each year... with this kick-off being the freshman year.

As Judy Reyngoudt Morgan said: "We wished everyone could have been with us, because we had such a wonderful time reminiscing about old friends and good times."

Chris and Carol's grandson, Viggo, will surely remember the evening. Not just because the Trojans won, but when the boy found out that Larry Brown played pro baseball, he sent his Dad home to get Larry's BB card, and Larry signed it.....making the boy's day.

Women from Class of '50 Meet Monthly for Lunch

By Helen Gilmore

"The light of our learning... is still brightly burning." Our alma mater means a lot to all of us Class of '50 women who meet monthly for lunch at the Farmer Girl Restaurant in Lake Worth. Maybe it's because its composer, R. Paul Fiscus, was our band director when we went to Lake Worth High School. He ended up marrying our typing teacher while we were there.

We look forward to the last Friday of the month when we can catch up on each other and hear news of all of our former classmates. We are all thankful that we can enjoy each other's company and still get together. Our classmate, Margaret (Maggie) Shamo Witherow, has worked tirelessly over all these years to keep us connected. She sets up meetings and sends out reminders. Thanks, Margaret.

'69 Holds 45th in Kissimmee

The LWHS class of 1969 just had their 45th Reunion at the Comfort Suites, Maingate in Kissimmee. What a great time, what a great hotel.

Approaching our fiftieth reunion we decided to do a different type of reunion, a kind of reunion lite. Doris (Hogfish123) told us about the Comfort Suites, Maingate East in Kissimmee. We kept things very simple. We picked a date, got a rate, and invited people to show up. Because there is so much to do in the Orlando Metro area we left the days open so attendees could do their own thing. Some people visited Disney, some shopped, and many stayed at the hotel and adjacent Old Town, an amusement, shopping area. As a Southerner, Old Town is my vision of Coney Island and a Jersey Boardwalk.

Thrill rides, go carts, kid rides, shops, restaurants are all well with in walking distance. It was nice to park the car on Friday and not need it until check out time on Sunday.

Nightly car shows, music, entertainment, dining are all right there. A shuttle goes to Disney so even then there was no driving.

Friday night we had a 'meet and greet' around the pool area. It was a nice way to get reacquainted. Saturday night picking our way thru the car show we had dinner at Southern Breeze. A restaurant in Old Town. The restaurant arranged tables, brought in extra wait staff and kitchen personnel for the 43 people who were a part of our group. It was easy and breezy.

Maribeth and Jay

I would like to thank Doris for her recommendation and Mrs. Cindy Brooks the hotel owner for the great time we had. Mrs. Brooks and her husband, (a LWHS grad) have hosted a LWHS event every May. I never gave it much thought previously but I highly recommend you try it out. The facilities at the hotel are first class and the staff is extremely friendly and professional. I suggest you give the May event a try and definitely think about putting on your own 'lite' version of a class reunion.

Dollars for Scholars President’s Message

Dollars for Scholars continues to grow and prosper. The $87,000 awarded to the class of 2014 set a record. We awarded $10,000 to our first class in 1999. We normally take 50% of the interest earned by the endowments each year and put it in the scholarship fund. We did not use the interest this year. It remained in the principal, growing the amount to a new high. To award a record $87,000 and not touch the interest is pretty amazing. WE continue to enjoy a reputation for raising money, managing it responsibly and awarding it on a fair and non-discriminatory basis.

We reported in the spring issue of The Alumni News that we were severing ties with our parent organization, Scholarship America. We have to stay with them one more year until we can obtain our own 501 c-3. We foresee this coming to fruition after January 1, 2015.

Two new endowments have been initiated for Jerry McCoy, ’48 and Charlie Brooks, ’52. Donations for these two endowments will be greatly appreciated by the families.

Two golf tournaments were held during October and November. Maryanne Hedrick, a teacher at Lake Worth Middle School organized the second annual Barry Grunow Memorial Golf Tournament at The PGA golf course in Palm Beach Gardens. You may recall that Maryanne taught with Barry at Lake Worth Middle when he was murdered in his classroom on the last day of school in 2000. Maryanne also included a 5-k run again this year. The 13th annual Dollars for Scholars Golf Tournament sponsored by The Lake Worth High School Alumni Foundation was held at The Atlantis Country Club. With total figures not in at press time, each tournament is expected to net $7,000 to $8,000.

Thanks to The Alumni Foundation for covering all our overhead expenses and to our many contributors for their support. It would not be possible for us to continue helping needy kids realize their dream of a college education.

“Keep them cards and letters coming in, brothers and sisters. Better still make that a letter ‘cause the Lord knows you can’t send money in a post card.”
